

AGENDA

Thursday, 23 May 2019
15:00–16:30

Musée Ariana,
Geneva, Switzerland

Transforming primary healthcare in the digital age

the impact and sustainability of clinical decision support tools

An event to be held on the sidelines of the 72nd World Health Assembly under the auspices of Burkina Faso Ministry of Health

Welcome and introduction

Isaïe Medah, Director General of Public Health, Burkina Faso

KEYNOTE: Are clinical decision support tools transformational?

Alain Labrique, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

Building the evidence, formalizing the process

Catharina Boehme, FIND

PANEL DISCUSSION: Ensuring impact and sustainability to enable implementation and scale up

Valérie D'Acremont, Swiss Tropical Public Health Institute (speaker and moderator)

Pierre Yaméogo, Ministry of Health, Burkina Faso

Jean-Thomas Nouboussi, Global Fund

Alexandre Cuenat, Wellcome Trust

A new era in primary care: where do we go from here?

Riccardo Lampariello, Terre des hommes

Hani Eskandar, International Telecommunication Union (ITU)

Alain Labrique, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

Open Q&A

Led by Riccardo Lampariello, Terre des hommes

Closing statement

Catharina Boehme, FIND

Coffee and networking

IN ASSOCIATION WITH BMJ Global Health

BMJ Global Health blog out now:

Can digital technology help reinvent primary healthcare in support of universal health coverage?